Housing Assistance: Provides financial and direct assistance to eligible homeowners and renters displaced from their pre-disaster primary residences.

Other Needs Assistance: Provides grants for other uninsured disaster-related necessary expenses and serious needs, including personal property, medical, dental, or transportation expenses.

DISASTER LOANS TO INDIVIDUALS & BUSINESSES:

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) offers homeowners disaster loans of up to $200,000 for real estate repairs. Homeowners and renters may borrow up to $40,000 to replace personal property. Businesses of all sizes and private non-profit organizations may borrow up to $1.5 million to fund repairs or replacement of real estate, machinery and equipment, inventory, and other business assets. SBA disaster loans are intended to cover losses, which were either under-insured or uninsured. Loans to homeowners and businesses may also include additional funds for hazard mitigation measures.

SBA makes Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL) available to small, non-farm businesses impacted by the disaster. These loans help small businesses pay bills and meet obligations until operations return to normal; the maximum loan amount is $1.5 million. Contact SBA at 1-800-488-5323.

EMERGENCY NEEDS REFERRAL:

Emergency food, clothing, shelter, and medical assistance may be provided to individuals and families having needs as a result of the disaster. Contact the American Red Cross at 1-866-GETINFO (1-866-438-4636).

STATE SUPPLEMENTAL GRANTS TO INDIVIDUALS & HOUSEHOLDS:

Supplement grants up to $10,000 by the State, may be available to eligible individuals and households who are unable to meet disaster-related necessary expenses and serious needs. These grants are offered when assistance from FEMA's Individuals and Households Program has been maximized. For application status contact CA Department of Social Services, State Supplemental Grant Program 1-800-759-6807, (TTY for speech and hearing impaired: 1-800-822-6268).
