DA Releases 2022 Annual Report

Highlights Include High Profile Prosecutions, Crime Prevention, Community Partnership and Outreach

San Diego County District Attorney Summer Stephan released the DA's 2022 Annual Report, noting a number of recent accomplishments across many different areas of her office's mission.

"This report reflects the work of the dedicated DA team of prosecutors, investigators, victim advocates and staff working alongside law enforcement and the communities we serve to keep San Diego one of the safest urban counties in America," DA Stephan said. "We are fighting for every person in every neighborhood to have safety and dignity."

The Annual Report can be found online here.

The report includes:

- A breakdown of prosecutions by crime type
- Notable and high-profile criminal cases in which prosecutors delivered convictions
- An account of the first year of operation of One Safe Place—the North County Family Justice Center
- A plan to address the intersection of crime and homelessness
- A re-energized fight against the fentanyl epidemic
