DA Hosts Record Relief Clinic, Provides Second Chances for Justice-Involved Youth

Free Event Will be Held Virtually on January 29

San Diego County District Attorney Summer Stephan announced that her office is hosting a free Criminal Record Relief Clinic for justice-involved youth to pursue post-conviction relief. The virtual event will provide information about various criminal record relief options including record expungements, reclassification of felonies to misdemeanors, early termination of probation, and relief under Prop. 47 and Prop. 64. There will also be presentations from those with lived experiences, resources and individual follow-up and support.

“It’s important that we provide resources for people, especially youth, who are moving on from mistakes made in their past but have a criminal record that’s holding them back,” District Attorney Summer Stephan said. “This event empowers people who qualify to find a second chance, and ultimately helps build safer communities. Getting a second chance is a powerful opportunity that can change the course of someone’s life.”
